Paris July 1st 1833

Sir,

I have the honor to announce to you, that agreeably to the desire you expressed to me, the Minister of finances has given orders for Mr. Peale to be admitted, to visit in detail the Mint. This functionary will receive from the "Commission de Monnaies" all the information he may require concerning the basis of our coining system.

The "Commissaire du Roi" & the director of the Mint, will, on their part, give him all information belonging particularly to manipulation & the process of coining.

Lastly an Essayer of the Mint, who speaks the English language, will serve Mr. Peale as interpreter in the communications he may have to make & to receive.

I have the honor to be with great respect

Your very humble & very obedient Servant

J. Broglie.
